MEDICAL COORDINATOR VACANCIES

KALGOORLIE, ALBANY AND GERALDTON

Applications are invited from medical practitioners for appointment as a Medical Coordinator with the Rural Clinical School of Western Australia. We have vacancies for Medical Coordinators in the following sites:

- A 0.5 FTE appointment as Medical Coordinator in Kalgoorlie.
- A 0.2 FTE appointment as Medical Coordinator in Albany.
- A 0.3 FTE appointment as a Medical Coordinator in Geraldton

Applications for lower FTE fraction appointments will also be considered.

The Medical Coordinators will be required to assist with organising and teaching of RCSWA students.

Both generalists and specialists are encouraged to apply.

Please respond in writing clearly stating your area of interest and size of fractional appointment that you would be interested in by Friday 2nd December 2016 by emailing Rhonda Worthington, Senior Administrative Officer, C/- PO Box 1654, KALGOORLIE WA 6433 at rhonda.worthington@rcswa.edu.au. Alternatively please feel free to discuss with Professor David Atkinson on 0438 380 209.

SELECTION CRITERIA

ESSENTIAL

1. Registered, or able to be registered with AHPRA as a Medical Practitioner.
2. Committed to be active in local medical practice
3. Available to work in the respective RCSWA site and the ability to network with rural practitioners in the region.
4. Experience as a preceptor and/or supervisor of medical students and/or junior doctors.
The Rural Clinical School of Western Australia

5. Effective organisational, communication and negotiation skills.

6. A commitment to the principles and practice of Indigenous health in rural and regional areas.

7. A commitment to rural medical education.

DESIRABLE

1. Registered as a specialist (GP or other specialty) with AHPRA.

2. Experience in medical education including knowledge of the medical curriculum of UWA or UNDA.

3. Currently resident and practicing in the town applied for.

5. An interest in research in and into rural health

DUTY STATEMENT FOR MEDICAL COORDINATORS IN THE RURAL CLINICAL SCHOOL

1. In consultation with local medical practitioners and agencies maintain and further develop local educational programs that meet the requirements of the RCSWA and take advantage of local opportunities and strengths.

2. Deliver medical education and training to medical students and assist in the support of preceptors and host practitioners.

3. Arrange learning opportunities for medical students by liaising with local agencies.

4. Be involved in the development of research relevant to rural medicine.